

Safety Scenario, Skateboard

John has a skateboard that he loves. However, his mother told him not to use the skateboard as the wheels are in need of repair. She asked him to ride his bicycle instead.

John saw his best friend pass with his skateboard just a moment ago. He wants to join his best friend since they both love to skateboard. In John's opinion it would not be cool to ride his bicycle with his friend.

His mother just left to go shopping for groceries, so John decides to go outside and join his friend for a few minutes on his skateboard.
